II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

United States President Donald Trump, Governor Greg Abbott, Senator Ted Cruz, FBI, Texas Rangers, Roma Police failed to protect me, ignored my written letter to them and not remove unlawful squatters. Cartels from Mexico are living on my homestead without water since 2010, and I am not allowed on the ranch in Rio Grande city Texas since 2007. And not able to live on my homestead I am an heir. There is evidence of unlawful or erroneous tax assessments, tied to property entries that do not appear to have a valid or matching deed of record. Starr County Courts will not give me court hearing date for my orders since my dad was murdered in March 2007, City of Roma will not issue me 911 address for the Texas border properties.
